

Please do not further erode the diversity of voices on the airwaves by allowing giant media conglomerates - who already control too many radio stations (and other media, as well) -- to own and control even more stations. Thank you!